Guest Speaker – Captain Martha Whiteaker

Captain Martha Whiteaker currently flies for Delta Air Lines and serves as a check pilot to ensure flight proficiency. Her “unexpected” career began more than 33 years ago, and she has logged thousands of hours in a variety of airline and military aircraft. She is an influential aviator who helped pave a path for women pilots in the airline industry and the U.S. Navy. Martha also stars in an award-winning Meet the Fleet video that highlights features of the Airbus A350 aircraft. A fun fact about Martha is that she has never flown a general aviation aircraft, but that is her next adventure!
